Judging Lynne Rosebrock

Did you ever wonder exactly what the judge is learning when he/she runs his hands all over your dog? “Going over” a dog conveys important, specific information about structure, conditioning, and how well each dog conforms to the standard for the breed. Learning how to “go over” a dog yourself is an important skill that will help you evaluate your own dogs and become a more knowledgeable exhibitor. Join Lynne in this brand-new workshop and learn the ins and outs of judging. Come away knowing exactly what a judge is looking for and doing during an evaluation of your dog.

Handling Lynne Rosebrock

Part of the skill of handling is knowing what to do to help the judge see the good qualities of your dog, and (hopefully) help him/her miss the less desirable ones. Lynne Rosebrock will teach you the ring techniques that make her so successful. Sign up and learn how you and your hound can work together in the conformation classes to follow. Limber them up, settle them down, and get ready to win!

Lure Practice Terry & Robin Burchett

Your youngster has been patient and good all day; now is the time to reward him/her with some fun! Learn about lure coursing and give your puppy a chance to develop his/her instinct for the chase under the expert guidance of Robin and Terry Burchett. Course designed to be puppy and handler-friendly!
